Checklist for Breakthrough Leaders Program

You’re ready for our program if you find yourself saying:

- I’m ready to be more of a leader.
- I need skills to be a catalyst for change and to ramp up my effectiveness/career.
- I can’t “stand by” any longer. I am driven to make change.
- I realize change is urgent and am willing to stop being behind the scenes.
- I’m committed to do the hard work needed to develop a healthy, sustainable food system that’s accessible to all.

You will walk away with the capability to more effectively:

- See systems and intervene in them
- Create, clarify, and communicate a shared vision
- Design and organize participatory projects
- Incorporate diversity as a strength
- Collaborate across boundaries
- Amplify your “voice” using social media and other communication strategies and channels
- Apply business acumen for professional and productive work and partnership
- Lead movement-building core constituencies
- Understand key indicators of organizational/system health (financial, social and ecological)
- Apply the SEED (Social, Economic, Environmental, Diet & Health) framework to holistically analyze systems and consider trade-offs
