

UVM SUMMER REGISTRATION IS OPEN AND TUITION IS DISCOUNTED BY 30%

Dear CAS student:

Still need to find a course to satisfy your distribution requirements?

The College of Arts and Sciences has a vast array of courses in science, literature, language, fine arts, humanities, AND social science. Space is available in almost all courses.

Also note that PHIL 013 will be offered on campus, 5/23-6/17, and can fulfill your Mathematical Sciences requirement.

Need to get that D1 general requirement out of the way? A number of summer courses fill the requirement:

ANTH 169 D1: Latinos in the US [ONLINE]

CRES 095 D1: Political Economy of Race [CAMPUS]

CRES 095 D1: Geography/ Race&Ethnic in US [ONLINE]

ECON 095 D1: Political Economy of Race [CAMPUS]

ENGS 30 D1: Native American Literature [ONLINE]

ENGS 57 D1: Race&Ethnic Lit Stds: Intro [ONLINE]

GEOG 60 D1: Geography/Race&Ethnic in US [ONLINE]

MU 10 D1: Blues and Related Traditions [ONLINE]

MU 5 D1: Intro to Jazz History [ONLINE]

POLS 129 D1: Constitutional Law: Civil Rights in America [ONLINE]

SOC 119 D1: Race & Ethnicity [ONLINE]

SOC 19 D1: Race Relations in the US [CAMPUS]

WLIT 116 D1: Latino Writers US: Cont Pers [CAMPUS]

Additional Resources:

Summer Financial Aid

Summer Housing

Summer Dining

Review the course list to find additional CAS courses. The course list is updated regularly, so check back often. Register soon to save your place in the course you want. For help selecting classes, contact your faculty advisor.

WE URGE YOU TO REGISTER SOON TO ENSURE A SPOT IN THE COURSE(S) YOU WANT TO TAKE