OLLI at UVM POLICIES

Course Cancellation

UVM reserves the right to cancel or change any course(s). If you need to cancel your attendance from a course, you must notify us via email to uvmolli@uvm.edu at least 14 days prior to the start date of the course in order to receive a refund. Should we receive notice of your cancellation in time, a full refund will be granted for your course registration. “Travel courses require earlier cancellation notice. Please refer to the specific course listing on our website.”

Cancellation Due to Weather/Emergencies

Courses may be cancelled/postponed if either (1) the instructor is made unavailable to teach, (2) the University of Vermont closes or (3) based on official weather advisories, OLLI at UVM deems road conditions to be hazardous for our students.

Recorded information as to the University’s status is available by calling 802.656.0000.

Should a cancellation/postponement take place, OLLI at UVM will do the following:

- Email students registered in that day’s classes at the email address given during registration, and
- Call students registered in that day’s classes at the phone number given during registration.

OLLI at UVM will make every effort to reschedule class sessions that did not take place due to weather.

While we will make every effort to reschedule a class if it is cancelled due to weather or emergency, we are not able to grant refunds or credit in these situations.
